For each question researchers assessed knowledge gap, achievability, scope and priority as very high (VH), high (H), medium (M), low (L) or very low (VL). No. refers to number of proposed questions within a category. Table values are reviewers scoring, expressed as a percentage of all responses to a question within a category. Shaded areas are the median value for question attributes within each category.