

Figure S9. Expression types of global DE genes among the three strains. “Silent” means genes were silent in only one strain but not silenced in the other strains and highly expressed in either of the other strains. “Expressed” means genes were expressed in only one strain but silent in the other strains.